Dear Parents

During the course of the morning I held a series of short assemblies with the different year groups in the school. The purpose of these assemblies was to ask the students for their help and assistance with a matter that the local Police were looking into. I would like to emphasise categorically that the issue itself did not affect The Brakenhale School in any way and at no point were the students at any kind of risk.

As always, I was very pleased with the way the students responded and conducted themselves.

Yours faithfully

Paul Salter
Headteacher
