Dear Parents

I am writing to inform you that Friday 22nd May 2009 will be a non-uniform day for Year 11 only. This is in recognition of the positive way in which they have approached their revision and preparations for the examinations and the exemplary way in which they have to date conducted themselves in examinations.

At the request of Year 11 students, it has been agreed that students will wear smart clothes for the day and that they will contribute £1 each to purchase suitable gifts to mark the occasion of them completing their studies at Year 11. During Period 5 (2.00pm – 2.55pm) tomorrow students will be allowed to sign one another's shirts in the school Dining Room, where refreshments will be provided for them.

I would like to take this opportunity of wishing all the students in Year 11 a productive half term holiday and to wish them every success in their forthcoming examinations.

Yours faithfully

Paul Salter
